New facilities at Dudley Cornell Park

Horsham Rural City Council is seeking input regarding the location of facilities at Dudley Cornell Park.

Female friendly change rooms, public toilets, a barbecue and shelter and two art pieces created at recent NorthFest festivals will be located at the park.

Initial consultation has already started with sporting groups and with some of the organisations that surround the park.

Council's Recreation and Project Officer, Mandy Kirsopp also wants to hear from individuals and families who use the park.

"Although our current focus is the placement of change rooms we want to understand movement patterns and usage of the park because this is an important recreation facility that is shared by many," Ms Kirsopp said.

"We want to know what attracts you to the park and what facilities might be added to encourage you to and your family to spend more time in the park.

"Please share your experiences with us to be included in our planning," she said.

Ms Kirsopp encouraged people to attend a community drop in session at the Dudley Cornell Pavilion on a date to be confirmed.

Alternatively, people can leave their feedback via Council's Have Your Say web page.

Pick My Project funding up for grabs

The Wimmera community has the chance to benefit from a new statewide grants program called Pick My Project.

People aged 16 and over can submit ideas for projects. The public will then decide on shortlisted ideas for their local area through a democratic online voting process.

Applications are now open and close 24 June 2018.

The Department of Premier and Cabinet will host an information session on Thursday 7 June, 2018 at Horsham Community Sports Pavilion, Dimboola Road Horsham from 7.30pm.

Council will also host information sessions at the Civic Centre on Wednesday 13 June from 11am to 12noon and Tuesday 19 June from 9am to 10am.

Judgement day for Horsham

Today our city is being judged in the 2018 Tidy Town Awards.

For the army of volunteers that keep Horsham beautiful it is the culmination of ongoing hard work and dedication.

When it comes to Tidy Towns, Horsham has enjoyed a fantastic history. We won the national title in 2001 and have been Victoria's tidiest town seven times. Last year we were yet again finalists and claimed individual awards but narrowly missed out on the state title.

Today the judge will visit several community programs that are powered by volunteers.

A prime example is Wimmera River Improvement Committee stalwart Gary Aitken.

Gary has been a dedicated member of the river and Tidy Towns committees for over 20 years. Every Wednesday he leads a band of willing helpers to undertake works along the river frontage and adjoining areas.

He is instrumental in lobbying Council and other agencies for works to improve the river environment and seeking funding to enable these works to occur.

With people such as Gary part of the community, you can be assured that the judge will again be impressed with Horsham.

Along with the Tidy Towns Committee, many other groups and volunteers have contributed to us being a perennial tidy Towns contender including the Horsham Men's Shed, Horsham Christian Emergency Food Centre, and Horsham Landcare Group.

This success wouldn't happen without volunteers, the people who have gone above and beyond what was expected and created innovative projects for the whole community.

But just like a successful sporting team, you need new faces to keep stepping up.

We need to ensure the willingness to serve the community is passed down to the next generations.

Times are changing fast and in a world that is becoming more and more about the individual, our sense of community here in Horsham is worth holding onto.
