

Sunset Service for Armistice Centenary

At 11am on 11 November 1918 the guns of the Western Front fell silent after more than four years continuous warfare.

In 2018, to commemorate the centenary of the Armistice that ended WWI, a series of events will be held across Horsham Rural City Council.

To mark the milestone year, there will be additional activities including a lighting display in Firebrace Street, Horsham and a sunset Remembrance Day Service at the Anzac Centenary Bridge.

The visual display is being projected onto Horsham Post Office throughout the week, featuring First World War images and tributes to the 463 servicemen from Horsham and district who gave their lives.

The adjacent T&G Building will be floodlight in poppy red.

Sunset service attendees are invited to attach a woven red poppy provided by Horsham RSL to the bridge rail.

All citizens are requested to observe one minute's silence at 11am on Sunday.

Boomerang Bags group reaches milestone

Despite reaching the milestone of sewing 1,500 reusable bags last week, the team behind Boomerang Bags in Horsham insists the work is far from over.

Horsham Tidy Towns Committee and Horsham Urban Landcare Group joined forces to bring Boomerang Bags to the Wimmera in September last year.

The community-based initiative salvages fabric destined for landfill and turns it into reusable shopping bags for the public.

Group organiser Gillian Vanderwaal congratulated the group on their hard work.

"It has been a team effort and many members have given up hours of their time at our working bees, and we're grateful," Ms Vanderwaal said.

"It's not something that is going to stop now. The demand for the bags will only get stronger with Christmas just around the corner.

"It's not just about supermarket bags, Boomerang Bags are perfect for people to take with them when they are buying shoes, clothes and larger items," she said.

The concept started when two Queensland residents wanted to reduce the amount of plastic bags in their community.

Volunteer Karen Pedersen made Horsham's 1,500th Boomerang Bag last Thursday.

It has now grown across the country to involve more than 300 communities, with groups also appearing internationally.

The Horsham crew welcomes those of all skill levels to join.

"You don't have to be an expert at sewing. We make sure everyone has fun at our working bees and some people just come to help hem and iron or make coffee," Ms Vanderwaal said.

"The biggest thing we need right now is fabric. If people are taking down curtains, we'd love to have them and you can also donate doona covers and old fabric collections.

"We need to continue this movement in supporting people to have alternatives available and to use this fabric that would otherwise end up in landfill," she said.

To get involved contact Ms Vanderwaal on 0427 646 728.
