

Mobile Food and Beverage Traders

Fact Sheet

Fees and Location

The Mobile Food and Beverage Trading Procedure aims to create a balance between fixed businesses and the mobile food and beverage vendors by setting limits on available trading hours and locations. Currently mobile food and beverage vendors can only operate at private events and markets, or with a limited temporary permit from Councils Regulatory Services Team.

It is hoped that by providing options for mobile food traders operating in our parks and public spaces that we can both activate these spaces and provide options for food availability.

Council have attempted to create balance between fixed and mobile food traders when setting mobile food trader fees, locations and operating times. There was a number of considerations when creating the fees and charges, including the below:

- Costs of fixed food businesses verses costs mobile food traders
- Rates
- Restricted trading days and hours for mobile food traders
- Locations for traders (CAD verses Council public lands)
- Benefits and challenges for fixed and mobile businesses (e.g. liquor licenses, ability to move to private land / events, etc).

The below fees were also benchmarked against neighbouring councils with mobile food van policies to ensure we remain competitive including City of Ballarat, Gannawarra Shire, Greater City of Bendigo, Swan Hill Rural City Council and Mildura Rural City Council.
